

Please do not allow cell phones on planes. People on planes want to nap, read, listen to their own music, or talk with friends and family. They do not want to listen to someone screaming into a cell phone. Airplanes are confined places, with assigned seating. There is nowhere to go to escape an annoying cell phone conversation. Would you like to sit next to someone passionately arguing on his cell phone?